

We all have some
dream, some goal.
For me, my dream is that my children can study and move forward in life.

Leobardo Sanchez Perez, father and farm worker

At National Farm Worker Ministry, we dream of a world where farm workers have justice.

But, like Leobardo, we don't just dream about it.
Every day, in solidarity with our farm worker partners,
we work hard to achieve it.
